Stan Hoss BBQ crew preparing to serve dinner to more than 500 members and guests gathered for the Lane-Scott Annual Meeting at the Lane County Fairgrounds.

The Lane-Scott Electric Cooperative Annual Meeting was held on July 19, 2013, at the Lane County Fairgrounds. A crowd of over 500 guests were served a delicious meal by Stan Hoss BBQ of Ness City.

Incumbent Trustees Rad Roehl, representing Lane and Gove counties; Eric Doll, representing Finney and Hodgeman counties; and Bruce Wilkens, representing Scott and Logan counties; were re-elected to the Board of Trustees of your cooperative.

General Manager, Ed Wiltse, gave his report on the state of Lane-Scott Electric Cooperative.

Kyle Nelson, Sr. Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for Sunflower Electric Power Corporation was the guest speaker. Nelson stressed the effect that Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) regulations are having on your electrical rates and what direction things might go moving forward as well as an update on Rubart Station in Grant County.

Free carnival rides were enjoyed by the crowd as well as the many door prizes that were given away.

Eager Beavers 4-H Club

Lane Scott,

Thank you so much for giving me the opportunity to see all these amazing places. Even though we haven't even seen everything, I am having a blast. It's a time I'll never forget. Seeing all the memorials really brings everything to life.

Sincerely

*Ruth Hair,
2013 D.C. Youth Tour Participant*

Lane Scott,

Thank you so much for this opportunity. It's only Sunday and I have already learned so much. The Holocaust Museum was really neat and a great experience. We also stopped on the way down and learned more about outlets. Thanks again!
